

Ocean Art Expo

Celebrate World Oceans Day 2020 through Art

Image above: "Hawaiian Atoll" Painting by Patrick Ching

RULES

The World Oceans Day Art Expo is FREE and open to students (K - 12) and families and friends of all ages. Share your ocean inspiration through Art. Just download (FREE) a coloring sheet from artist Patrick Ching's new Papahānaumokuākea Song Coloring Book, color, select a category and submit. Download coloring book at www.PapahanaumokuakeaSong.com.

EXPO CATEGORIES

- (1) Submit by grade level K – 12
- (2) Submit as a group effort (family and friends art collaboration)

2020 WORLD OCEANS DAY THEME

"Kui 'ia ka lei moku e Kanaloa" – The Ocean unites humanity. During these extraordinary times, the ocean has been a source of comfort, a place to recreate and most importantly provides sustenance for those in need.

DEADLINE

All entries must be received by June 10, 2020. Submit completed coloring sheets as an image (jpeg or jpg) or pdf file that is greater than 1 megabyte (mb) using this link: <https://forms.gle/HXnyL2quecqV9C3b8>.

ENTRY DETAILS

- » The first 250 entrants will receive a free Papahānaumokuākea Sticker courtesy of artist Patrick Ching and have their artwork posted online at www.patrickching.com in the World Oceans Day gallery.
- » Select entries will be featured during the Virtual World Oceans Celebration hosted online on Saturday, June 13, 2020 from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m.. The event can be accessed at www.facebook.com/OiwiTV. For more information about the Virtual World Oceans Day Celebration, visit Eventbrite at <https://virtualworldwoceanswaycelebration.eventbrite.com>.

This World Oceans Day Celebration is generously supported by Ko Olina Resort Operators Association, Inc., the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), the City and County of Honolulu Storm Water Quality Branch and Aulani, A Disney Resort and Spa.

